

Dear Tribal Family,

Welcome to a new year full of new opportunities and possibilities. I hope this letter finds you and your families well. It is time again for Tribal Elections, and I would like to encourage each one of you to please vote. It is important to the Tribe as a whole and your vote does matter. I am asking for your support as I run for the position Treasurer in this election. I feel honored to have been given the opportunity to serve on our council in the past for 14 years. I believe that time has given me the knowledge of our budgets, audits, grants ect needed for this position. I also know I have much more to learn. Serving our people can be very challenging at times, but also very rewarding. We have experienced some roadblocks and challenging times and situations that have required us to make hard decisions. I feel that we need to continue to look to the future and do what is best for the tribe as a whole and for our future generations and leaders. Things will not always turn out as planned but it is how we adjust, learn and grow from those situations that matters.

We have made some great accomplishments for our people in the past few years including increasing Elder Care services, successful education of our members, increasing our land base, and continuing to focus on infrastructure and self-sustainability. We continue to seek out new opportunities to further our Tribe and our Members and I am proud of this.

It is critical that we stay current, educated and prepared to take any necessary steps to continue to protect all tribal rights and sovereignty. We must honor what our ancestors have done for us and we must continue this important work for the future generations to come. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Masi,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Jennifer Taylor", with a long, sweeping flourish extending to the right.

Jennifer Taylor